That Is What St. Louis May Become Unless Present Appearances Are All Wrong.

TALK OF NEW BOXING CLUB.

Harry Glickauf, Promoter of Fistic Contests, Is in the City in Consultation With Sam Gumpertz.

It would seem that the game pugilistic. the manly art, that is, boxing to regularly organized clubs by trained boxers, wearing gloves, is to again become part of St. Louis amusementa. This is what is sathered from the visit of Mr. Harry Glickauf, a cosmopol-Itan promoter of fistic athletics, to St. Louis.

Mr. Glickauf visited St. Louis yesterday. He spont the day with several local promoters at Delmar Garden. Mr. Sam Gumperts, manager of that establishment, has been a promoter of boxing in St. Louis. Mr. Glickauf was very reticent. He would not admit or deny, sasert or repudiate anything. He said he was here on theatrical business. It is stated with some authority that it is the intention of the people interested with Mr. Glickauf to establish an American Boys Across the Pond Win athletic club close to Delmar Garden, where fistic arguments may be settled in peace. so to speak. The promoters figure that the pleasure-seeking St. Louisans will travel a lot in the suburbs this summer. With a conveniently disposed club and good attractions protomers figure that they can do-

They Are Causing Trouble to Weak Lines in New York. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, July 16.-Western raffrond men say that it is a serious question with some of the differential lines whether they shall continue to run their fast trains be-tween Chicago and New York and charge the stated excess fares, or whether they shall lengthen the running time of each train to the twenty-eight-hour limit, thus deing away with the necessity of charging the extra fares. These differential lines complain that they cannot hold their traffic with the increased rate of fare, and they also say that they cannot get business enough to pay them by running slow trains. Unless the standard lines lengthen the time of their fast trains the weaker roads are likely to remain between two horns of a dilemma. shall continue to run their fast trains be-

Eminent Jurist of Thirteenth District Stricken With Paralysis at His Home.

America While a Boy.

Judge Rudolph Hirzel of the Thirteenth Judicial District, one of the best-known Judges in the State, died suddenly at II o'clock last night at his home in Clayton. Death resulted from a stroke of paralysis which came only a few hours previous. He was conscious to the inst and smiled at those who gathered about his bedside, but could not speak. All the members of his family were present until the last.

The Judge was stricken yesterday morning. Two physicians were summoned from worked unceasingly all day to restore the patient, but could afferd him no relief. Two of them were with him at the time of his death. Mrs. Hirzel has been critically di for a week and it is foared that the shock of her husband's death will have a serious effect on her. No arrangements had been made for the funeral last night.

The St. Louis physicians were Doctor Hugo Summa of No. 235 St. Louis avenue and Doctor E. M. Nelson of No. 165 Hamfiton avenue. The Clayton physicians were Doctors M. W. Caster and Conway Bates. Judge Hirzel had been in bad health for some time, and his family and physician requested him to take a rest, but he would not heed their advice. He had an attack similar to that of yesterday in Hermann, Mo. several months ago, while holding court at that place, but his physician managed to pull him through. He was warned then that rest was imperative, but for years the Judge had almost lived in his office, and he decided to keep on working. Judge Hirzel had long been counted or Judge Hirrel and long been counted one of the abost jurists in Missouri. He was district to the beach from the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit fourteen years ago, and had held office continuously since. At that time his district comprised St. Louis, St. Charles and Warren counties. Eight years ago the work of the continuously since and Warren counties. Eight years ago the and Warren counties. Eight years ago the State was redistricted and the Judge was switched into the Thirteenth District. He was re-elected two years ago for the term expiring in 1994. In 1896 he received the Republican nomination for the Supreme Court and was recently mentioned as an available

andidate for the Court of Appeals, Germany, fifty-two years ago. He came to the United States when he was 18 years old. About a month ago he celebrated the silver anniversary of his wedding. Mrs. Hirzel is still living. There are two child Otto and Cora, both of who are grown. There are two children

Assistant Superintendents of Instruction to Receive $3,500.

At the July meeting of the Board of Edu cation last night it was decided to rulee the salaries of the three Assistant Superintendents of Instruction to $3,500 per annum, an increase of $500. This action was recommended in the report of the Pinance Com-mittee.

The report of the Committee on Instruc-tion stated that it was unable to reverse the action of Superintendent Soldan in re-moving Mbs Morschel from the superin-tendency of the Dodler School.

There was considerable debate on the ad-vancing of the salaries of the Assistant Su-perintendents. These functions vancing of the sataries of the Assistant Su-perintendents. # IDA CONQUEST AND DREW.

She Will Be His Leading Lady This Season.

New York, July 10.-Miss Lia Conquest will be Mr. John Drew's leading lady the coming season. And, of course, the next question naturally is, What is Miss Isabel Irving going to do? On that point, the cablegram going to do? On that point, the cablegram from Mr. Charles Froluman to-day amounc-ing the advancement of Miss Conquest is silent. There are some shrewd persons in theatrical circles, though, who are willing to wager that Miss Living, too, is to be ad-vanced, and that she is going out in the autumn at the head of a company of her own.

lo wager that Miss Living, too, is to be all-vanced, and that she is going out in the autumn at the head of a company of her own.

Mr. Drew, since he began his career as a star under Mr. Frohman's management, has had only two leading ladies. The first of there was Miss Maude Adams, who now is herself one of the most popular and successful stars on the American stage. Miss living, who succeeded her, has a very charming personality, and in several of the parts she has acted with Mr. Drew has shown histrionic talent. If Mr. Frohman has decided, as the gossips say he has, to "star" her, she will certainly begin her career with a host of friends and well-wishers.

As to Miss Conquest, who is to he Mr. Drew's third leading lady, she is already a favorite with theater-goers in New York and on the read. Last season she was a member of Mr. Drew's company when he appeared in "The Tyranny of Tears" at the Empire, and gave a delightful performance as the pretty typewriter secretive in love with her employer.

Previously, Miss Conquest had been a member of the Empire Theater stock company for several seasons. One of her first successes was as Musette in "Bohemia." Afterwards, she appeared in leading roles in "Under the Red Robe" and "The Conquestors." She also acted cleverly the role of the wife in "Because She Loved Him So." Her ability as an emotional actress was displayed in "One Plus One Equals Three," a special matine performance of which was given in this city several years ago.
